

Mr. Hughlett submitted the following message:
Which was read the first time.

By the Senate,

March 17th, 1835.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates;

We have received your message, proposing to close the present session of the Legislature by an adjournment, sine die, on Friday the 20th instant, and concur therein.

The president laid before the Senate a communication from Henry D. Hatton, complaining of charges against him for inspection of his tobacco, and asking to be refunded the amount so erroneously charged,

Which was read, and referred to the consideration of the House of Delegates.

Mr. Emory, from the committee on the militia, to which was referred the bill entitled, An act to enrol, organize, equip, and regulate the militia of this state, reported, that the committee had had said bill under consideration, and were of opinion it ought to pass, with the following amendments,

Which were read and assented to.

In the 6th section, 19th line, after the word "his," strike out the words "receipt, and the men their bonds, as is directed in other cases by this act," and insert "bond with sufficient security."
